

NEWSLETTER – OCTOBER TO DECEMBER 2003

EDITOR'S COMMENTS:

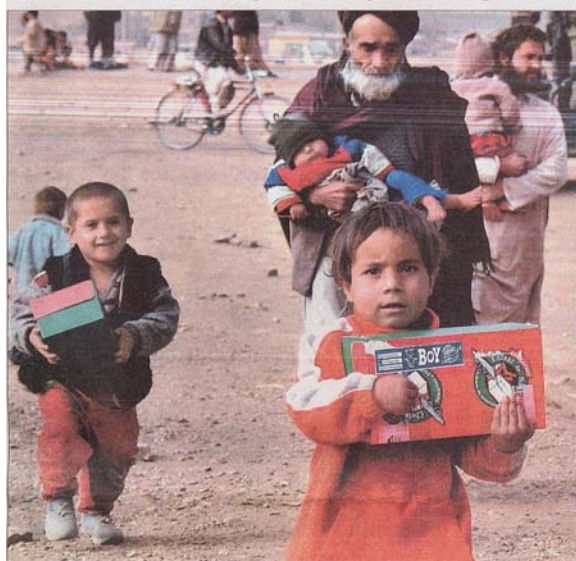

This has been a busy quarter for social events and training and refresher courses for all employees and I hope you enjoy reading about these events if you were not able to participate. If you have any news or articles you would like including in any future editions of the Newsletter, please let me know.

AWARDS AND ACHIEVEMENTS:

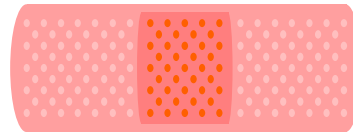

Thanks again to all employees who participated in the Christmas Child Project again this year and donated 15 boxes to children who would otherwise not have received any Christmas Gifts. You can see the joy on the faces of two of the children receiving such a parcel below:

Canadian Forces soldiers spread holiday cheer in Afghanistan

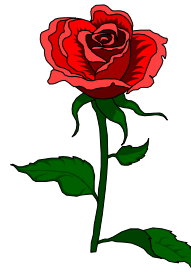

TOY JOY
Toy joy Afghan children at a refugee camp in Kabul gleefully carry away boxes of toys delivered yesterday by Canadian soldiers. The shoeboxes, collected by the aid group Samaritan's Purse and filled with toys, candy and toiletries, were quickly snatched up.
